A NEW KEY DUPLICATION LAW? Not yet.

The bill that was mentioned in this newsletter last month regarding automobile key duplication is on hold for now.

Rick Duskwicz, NYAIL's Treasurer, testified at the City Council's Consumer Affairs Committee on November 17. His testimony, and that of a spokesman for the NYC Dept of Consumer Affairs, helped raise enough questions about this legislation that the committee decided not to put it to a vote.

The DCA's spokesman brought up that changes to the current locksmith law were "in the works." Rick publicly commented to the spokesman that NYAIL members and other locksmiths should be involved in any changes to the current rules regarding locksmiths.

We will keep you informed of any updates.
