MEDECO 3 CLASS ON MAY 21

As we mentioned last month, Medeco and Accredited Lock Supply have teamed together to offer NYAIL members a free certification class on Medeco 3. The response was fantastic, with a total of 27 members and guests registering.

This class will be held at our regular meeting space at Lexington Ave and 24th Street on Saturday, May 21. This will be a full day session, starting at 8:30 AM.

We will be serving juice and doughnuts at 8:00 AM and sandwiches for lunch. All attendees MUST be in the classroom by 8:30 AM. All beepers and phones will be turned off at the beginning of the class and will remain off.

WELCOME

A big welcome to Mayflower Sales, who has joined as the newest Corporate Member. Mayflower's rep is Dave Akins.

WELCOME BACK

It was good to see Mike Stewart at the last meeting. Mike and his wife Jackie were in a terrible accident a few months ago.

ASIS SHOW AND NYAIL

Wai Kin Ng and Rick Duskiwicz will be representing NYAIL at the ASIS-NYC show, being held at the Jacob Javits Center on May 24 and 25. Come by and visit.

ID CARDS

We had a few details to work out with the ID cards. One of the items that we'll need is your locksmith license number. We'll be using this number as your ID card number. Although we should have it in your application, please bring your number with you to this month's meeting or e-mail it to Rick Duskwicz at rick@locksmith.org

FAREWELL

Tom Negron, who helped bring the Institutional Locksmith Association back to its current standing in the locksmith community, stepped down as president last month because of a conflict with his new position and hours at his job. We at NYAIL want to thank him for his excellent work the last couple of years.

WELCOME

Kurt Kloeckner of Chicago has stepped in as president of the ILA. Welcome Kurt!

CONGRATULATIONS

Congrats to Rick Duskwicz, who passed his CJIL exam last month. The "Certified Journeyman Institutional Locksmith" test is the second part of three sections in the ILA's certification program.

Also, congrats to Rick on being elected a Director at the Institutional Locksmith Association.

CELL PHONES

There seems to be some confusion about NYAIL's policy of cell phones needing to be either shut off, or put on vibrate, during our meetings. We realize you want the other members to think your institution cannot function without you...but it is MANDATORY that all meeting attendees follow these rules. Allowing your phone to ring during a presentation is extremely rude to everyone else in the room. If your phone does vibrate during a meeting, say, "hold please," and wait until you are out of the room to start your conversation. It's a simple and clear rule, and no one is above it.
