NYAIL OFFICERS MEET AT CITY HALL

The New York Association of In-house Locksmiths, Inc. has been at the forefront of the battle against illegal sticker advertising. Wai Kin Ng and Rick Duskiwicz met with Councilwoman Gale A. Brewer and others on the steps of City Hall to discuss legislation that Ms. Brewer and Councilman Tony Avella of Queens introduced on September 17. This legislation, if passed, should virtually eliminate this form of vandalism.

Rick has not only written to several Council Members asking for their support, but ambushed one from Queens while he was leaving a speaking engagement at a Community Board meeting. That Council Member has also agreed to support the bill.

As of press time, fourteen Council Members have signed on to support this bill. This includes Councilman Michael McMahon, who chairs the Sanitation Committee. This committee will now review the bill.

In the meantime, you may view several pages dedicated to these stickers at:

Next month, we'll let you know how you can help.

NYAIL ON TELEVISION

Back in June, NYAIL was instrumental in finding a locksmith willing to participate in a new TV show on the Oxygen Channel. Although this locksmith was not a NYAIL member, the producer was willing to show thanks by giving us a "Special Thanks To..." credit at the end of the show.

That's national TV, folks!

Remember: During the meetings, shut off your cell phone as a courtesy to everyone else.

If you MUST take the call, step outside the room before answering.
