ILA / NYAIL CONFERENCE

The Institutional Locksmiths Association has invited NYAIL and its members to participate in its 5 day conference in Secaucus, NJ from October 5 - 9.

This educational conference will consist of full and half-day classes. Some examples are:

- Life-Safety Codes,
- Interchangeable Core Servicing,
- Key Control Policies and Implementation,
- Institutional Shop Management, and
- Electrical Hardware Installation.

In addition to the classes, there will be a Banquet on Saturday evening, and several breakfasts and luncheons during the week. Accredited Lock Supply will be hosting this 5 day event at their brand-new facility on Paterson Plank Road in Secaucus. The cost for ILA and NYAIL members is $100. for as many classes as you could take during that 5 day period. The banquet is also included.

The keynote speaker at the Saturday evening banquet will be ALOA's new president, Bob Mock, who is himself an in-house locksmith. Booklets and applications were mailed out to every NYAIL regular member during the summer. If you cannot find yours, the complete 10 page booklet is available on the www.locksmith.org website. If you're interested, don't delay, there is limited space.

CERTIFICATION

On Sunday, October 9, there will be a sitting for the CIL locksmith certification. There will also be a sitting for the CJIL certification test. Both will be held in Secaucus at the ILA/NYAIL conference. You must sign up in advance.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Congratulations to Otto Gonzalez for a published technical tip in the Locksmith Ledger on creating a lighted follower. Also, congrats to Rick Duskiwicz for an article on modifying some hardware for use on a racquetball court. This was also published in the Locksmith Ledger recently.
